

WINE LIST 2019

We are extremely proud of our wine selection which has been handpicked to provide our customers with the choice of grape, region, style, budget and complexity that perfectly matches the food on offer and will satisfy even the most discerning of palate.

Our list contains over 20 “Wines by the Glass” from 4 continents, for those needing a more temperate approach to dinner; whilst our main list provides a selection from many of the world’s leading houses, thereby providing an excellent selection of quality wines to suit every taste and budget.

There are our ever-popular Sommelier Recommendations including an excellent house selection of champagnes from one of France’s leading Chateau – Laurent Perrier. Enjoy.

“Wine is one of the most civilized things in the world and one of the most natural things of the world that has been brought to the greatest perfection, and it offers a greater range for enjoyment and appreciation than, possibly, any other purely sensory thing.”

- Ernest Hemingway

Sommelier Recommendation:

Laurent-Perrier

A brief history founded in 1812 LP as it is affectionately known is one of the world most esteemed champagne brands and the largest family owned brand – owned by the Nonancourt family since 1939.

There have been several world firsts for the brand including in 1958 the first introduction of a multi vintage prestige cuvee – Grand Siècle and in 1980 was the first to re-introduce the concept of brut nature (no added dosage) champagne.

Famous for an individual style, flavour and consistency as one cuvee succeeds another.

Sommelier Recommendation:

Marques de Caceres

Rioja, Spain

A firm favourite with customers for many years. A bodega run by the Forner family whom via their success in Bordeaux installed the first new Rioja bodega in 50 years and brought strong international experience and innovative methods that has blended with traditional Riojan viticulture and aging methods. The bodega now has one of the largest bottle stocks in the region helping it achieve perfect ageing for many of its wines.
